It's less than a ten-minute walk from The White House to Lookout Beach, and the same distance to the shops and popular restaurants in Plett's Main Street so driving is an option but not a necessity. Plett's other well-known beaches, (Central, Robberg, Solar and Keurbooms) are only a short drive away.

The White House is situated at the end of a quiet cul de sac where there is no passing traffic so complete peace and privacy are assured.

The White House can accommodate up to 8 people in four luxurious bedrooms (1 king en-suite, 1 queen en-suite, and 2 twin-bedded rooms which share a bathroom.)

The White House has plenty of secure parking for guests and their visitors. The perimeter of the property is fully enclosed with palisade fencing and there are remote controlled electric gates. The house has a 24-hour monitored alarm system and for added safety and security the upstairs of the house can be closed off at night with a steel security gate at the bottom of the staircase.

The showpiece of the ground floor is a stunning entertaining area which features a spectacular conservatory. The ingenious design has an inside/outside feel thanks to its transparent domed roof and open-air back wall.

In the middle of the conservatory is a 10-seater wrought iron table. At one end of the table is a built-in stainless steel braai (barbecue). At the other end are French doors which lead into the bar.

The conservatory is linked to the kitchen by large windows which concertina open to allow food to be served with ease.

The bar contains beer and wine fridges, comfortable bar stools and plenty of optics and glasses. For the convenience of guests the bar is stocked with beer, wine, spirits, mixers and soft drinks.

The bar has DSTV, DVD/CD and VCR players with surround sound which can also be linked through to outside speakers in the conservatory.

The tastefully furnished guest suite is located on the ground floor. It consists of a bedroom with a queen-size bed, and en-suite bathroom with shower. Lie in bed in the morning and watch the sunrise over the Indian Ocean.

Upstairs on a split-level, the white lounge provides a perfect lookout point for whale and dolphin watching. The views from here are simply superb. There are two comfortable white sofas and a second jet master fireplace.

There is a wall-mounted 32" LCD TV, with Sony DVD 5.1 surround sound system and dual view DSTV. The other televisions in the house (master bedroom, kitchen and bar) are linked to the dual view DSTV.

There are three luxurious bedrooms on the upper level. All three have been furnished in a contemporary and fresh style with light wood dressing and bedside tables and crisp cream and white linen. There is plenty of cupboard and wardrobe space. All of the beds, bed linen and towels are of a superior quality and bathrobes and hairdryers are provided.

Two light and airy twin-bedded rooms are located opposite one another on the upper level. They share a bathroom which has a bath and a shower.

The luxurious master suite is located at the top of the split-level upper floor and comprises the bedroom with king size bed, where you will wake to a perfect view of the sun rising over the Indian Ocean. A sliding door opens onto a sun terrace where you can enjoy a romantic breakfast. The en-suite bathroom is at the end of a sunny corridor dressing room lined with fitted wardrobes and cupboards. The bathroom has a bath, large shower and double basin.

The master suite has its own TV, DSTV, DVD, compact hi-fi, mini-bar fridge and ceiling fan.
